

Your Estimated Settlement Payment

Rigoberto Sarmiento, Gustavo Luevano-Vaca. v. Fresh Harvest, Inc., Fresh Foods, Inc., SMD Logistics, Inc., and Rava Ranches, Inc.

United States District Court for the Northern District of California, San Jose Division
Case No. 5:20-cv-7974-BLF

According to the Defendants' employment records, you performed work for Defendants, receiving paystubs from <<Defendant Name>> as an:

- <<H-2A Worker>>
- <<Domestic Worker>>

for your work as a truck driver from <<Start Date>> to <<End Date>>. During this period, you worked a total of <<Workweeks>> workweeks.

Based on that information, it is estimated that you will receive <<$Estimated Payment>> from the Settlement calculated as follows. This calculation includes the following amounts:

Settlement Amount	<<$Pro Rata Share>>
Prior Out-of-Court Payment	- <<$Prior Out of Court Payment>>
Total Estimated Payment	<<$Estimated Payment>>

If you do not live in the United States, to receive your share of the Settlement Funds, you must contact the Settlement Administrator at the address below to tell them where and how to send your payment once the Court grants final approval of the Settlement. For a bank transfer, in the United States you can provide the bank name, routing number (ABA) and your account number. For a bank transfer to Mexico, please provide the 18-digit interbank CLABE. If you live in the United States your settlement check will be mailed to the same address that Notice was mailed, unless you contact the Settlement Administrator to change your address or request that your settlement funds be sent in a different way. Your contact and payment information will not be shared with anyone other than the Settlement Administrator.

If you disagree with the dates of your employment, the employer who paid you, whether you had an H-2A visa, and/or the stated number of weeks you worked for Defendants, you must submit a written statement of what you believe are the correct dates, employer, visa status, and workweeks to the Settlement Administrator no later than September 11, 2023.

If you have any questions about this form or the Settlement, you may contact the Settlement Administrator at:
